2 In the case of an event giving rise to a claim: only from the day on which the interested parties become aware of it, if they prove that they have ignored it until then.

When the action of the Insured against the Insurer results from a claim by a third party, the statutory limitation period shall only start to run from the day upon which that party has taken legal action through the courts against the Insured or has been compensated by the latter.

The statutory limitation period is extended to ten years in contracts of insurance against accidents to the persons where the Beneficiaries are the legal heirs of the deceased Insured.

The statutory limitation period is interrupted by one of ordinary causes of limitation period interruption, namely by:

 - any designation of an expert following an event giving rise to a claim;
- the sending of a registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt by:

 - the Insured to the Insurer for payment of the insurance benefit.

As an exception to article 2254 of the Civil Code, the parties to an insurance contract may not, even by mutual agreement, either change the duration of the statutory limitation periods, nor add to the grounds for suspension or interruption of the same.
